Jamaica Plain High School

Jamaica Plain, Mass.

1981

Stacy Johnson,
Headmaster

In 1981:

We wore: braids and beads, designer jeans, and hospital outfits.
We watched: "General Hospital" and "Dallas."
We danced to: punk rock as well as disco, as the "Jordache" replaced
the "White Boy" and "Rapper's Delight" gave way to "It's a Love Thing,"
"Another One Bites the Dust,"
"Don't Stop the Music,"
"What You Gonna Do For Me," and "Whip It."

We celebrated: an ethnic food festival, and dance recitals.
We commemorated: the first Darryl Williams week to honor the J.P. football player shot on a Charlestown football field last year.
We greeted: School Committee President John O'Bryant and Senator Paul Tsongas.
We regretted: more than 2200 teachers getting layoff notices.
We mourned: the death of Mr. von Handorf.

In coming years, we'll look back on: the pages that follow and recall our own special memories . . .
